About the Education Department - Elizabethtown College Peter Licon took students from the Elizabethtown College chapter of the National Science Teachers Association to Hawk Mountain Sanctuary in Kempton, Pennsylvania, for a nature outing this past fall. The area is known for its scenic views and flora and fauna and is a migratory path for birds of prey. Taking the trip was the professor's way of showing students that nature can be used as a classroom. The nature-based outing is slated to become a recurring activity.
